Agenda Item 6.a

Two Examples of Calls for art -

Public art can be a change agent for the community. It creates and enhances neighborhood and community identity. It enhances the visual landscape and character of the city. It turns ordinary spaces into community landmarks and promotes community dialogue and, most importantly, it is accessible to everyone.

The Coeur d'Alene "ArtCurrents" program consists of Sculptures on loan from artists around the country. Artists submit applications for placement of their sculptures around the downtown Coeur d'Alene area for a period of one (1) year.

Responses to this "Call to Artists" will be evaluated by a selection committee consisting of members of the Arts Commission, a councilmember, a member of the Downtown Association, and other members as determined by the Arts Commission

The Metropolitan Nashville Arts Commission (Metro Arts) is soliciting proposals for bicycle rack designs scheduled for fabrication and installation in various locations throughout Nashville-Davidson County in 2016.

From Miami Shores:

2014 Miami Shores Photo Op Contest

The Miami Shores Fine Arts Commission calls all resident shutterbugs to submit their best snapshots of the Shores for its' annual Photo Op Contest. Photo submissions accepted through Friday, February 21. Winners will be determined by public voting at the Village's March 1st Unity Day. Each participant may submit up to 5 entries via email in JPG digital format to: rackll@miamishoresvillage.com

The committee can rewrite this for Biscayne Park

Can this call go on the BP page?

Can there be an email blast for this?

Can photos go on the BP web page, in a loop, so the pictures are displayed as they come in?

Can this go before the commission to help the word get out?

Any chance that selected photos can be featured at the May 16 art event?
